The Canadian Magazine for August has a large variety of reading matter, including a very remarkable article and several short stories. The illustrations are chiefly from original drawings. An article which will be read with much interest by the large class which studies the deepest problem of the age is that by Hon. David Mills on "The missing link in the typology of Evolution," in which the writer fully joins issue with those who maintain that evolution explains the phenomena of creation. "The Physical Basis of Knowledge," by John Ferguson, M.A., M.D., Ph.D., deals in a most interesting way with brain functions and, in passing, exposes the absurdities taught under the head of phrenology.

"The Hudson Bay Route," by Hugh Sutherland, Esq., M.P., is a timely contribution in these days, when the problem of cheap transportation is engaging public attention. E.P. Wells' graceful pen contributes "MacMaster University," an excellent illustrated article of one of Ontario's best equipped groups of educational institutions. "The Silver Wedding of the Emperor of Japan," by Charles T. Long, gives a charming account of an eye-witness of the imposing ceremonies which attended the celebration of the event.

John A. Cooper writes thoughtfully of "Canadian Democracy and Sociology." Thomas H. Champion's illustrated article on "Four Famous Cathedrals," will entertain all who take an interest in the old buildings of England and their noisy history, while E.T.D. Chamberlain's illustrated article on Lake St. John and the Sag-uenay, will open to many a further glimpse of the wonderful valley that, so newly opened to settlement and civilization, is one of the oldest and grandest of the works of nature. Honora S. Howard gives us a peep at Longfellow's home, and Charles Gordon Rogers takes us on a romantic ride in incidents—with him on a "Holiday in the Hills" on the Quebec side of the Ottawa river. The career of the outlawed Donald Morrison furnishes the basis for a story of adventure by J.
Donald Morrison, entitled, "A Case of Mistaken Identity." For sweetest naturalists and pathos, W.W. Campbell's "Love's Tragedy at Scratch's point" is seldom excelled. A number of poems of considerable merit all to the interest of the current number of a magazine which deserves the hearty support of the reading public. Published by the Ontario Publishing Co., Ltd., Toronto. $2.50 per annum.

THEY WANT NAMES.

Frank S. Taggart & Co., 29 King Street West, Toronto, Ontario, desire the names and addresses of a few people in every town who are interested in works of art, and to secure them they offer to send free, "Cupid Guides the Boat," a superbly executed water color picture, size 10 x 11 inches, suitable for framing, and sixteen other pictures about same size, in colors to anyone sending them at once the names and addresses of ten persons (addressors of five pictures) together with five three-cent stamps to cover expense of mailing, etc. The regular price of these pictures is $1.00, but they can all be secured free by any person forwarding the names and stamps promptly.

NOTE.—The editor of this paper has already received copies of above picture and considers them really "Gems of Art."
